True/False (5 pts each)

Ho, hum, another batch of instructions. But this time we will make them a little shorter, because we assume that students realize what they should do.

I don't know why you'd need this, but here is a block of true/false questions.

- _____ 'Roger & Me' chronicles one man's attempt to get into Disneyland so that he can visit Toontown.
- _____ Laden swallows fly faster than unladen swallows, unless they carry coconuts.
- _____ All animals are created equal, but some animals are more equal than others.
- _____ 'Monty Python and the Holy Grail' is a very funny movie.
- _____ This sentence is not false.

Section 3. Fill in the blank (5 pts each)

Here is a place where you can put some instructions, so that the students won't get confused when they see a piece of paper with a whole bunch of questions on it. Of course, the instructions aren't required to be that lengthy, but you can make them as lengthy as you want so that people know what you are talking about.

I don't know why you'd need this, but here is a block of fill-in-the-blank questions.

1. _____ thought that without a strong, _____, effective government, chaos would reign in the state of nature.

2. One main component of Nietzsche's moral philosophy is the _____.
3. How much _____ would a _____ chuck, if a _____ would _____, wood?
4. Mill's theory of morality is known as _____
5. _____'s first work was the Tractatus-_____ Philosophicus.
6. According to Kant, we should always always always follow the _____ imperative.

Section 4. A title

These are meant to be multiple-choice questions — the type you would give students to fill out using scantrons (or whatever you call the number-2 pencil automatic grading machines).

7. How many people live in Wales?
  - (a) Approximately 2,811,865.
  - (b) More than in most countries.
  - (c) None.
  - (d) Exactly seventeen.

Here is a block of multiple choice questions.

8. The official state motto of Idaho is?
  - (a) "We're friendly than other states."
  - (b) "Home of the Unabomber."
  - (c) "Famous Potatoes."
  - (d) "Try us, you'll like us."
9. What philosopher declared that human beings are the conduit through which language passes?
  - (a) Martha Stewart
  - (b) Jacques Derrida
  - (c) Martin Heidegger
  - (d) Jacques Cousteau
10. How many cows does it take to graze a field?
  - (a) One.
  - (b) Two.
  - (c) Three.
  - (d) Four

11. This is a question. Which is the correct answer? →

14. He took his vorpal sword in hand: long time the manxome foe he sought – so rested he by the Tumtum tree, and stood awhile in thought.
15. ‘Twas brillig, and the slithy toves did gyre and gimble in the wabe; all mimsy were the borogoves, and the mome raths outgrabe.
16. ‘And has thou slain the Jabberwock? Come to my arms, my beamish boy! O frabjous day! Calooh! Callay!’ He chortled in his joy.
17. One, two! One, two! And through and through the vorpal blade went snicker-snack! He left it dead, and with its head he went galumphing back.
18. And as in uffish thought he stood, the Jabberwock, with eyes of flame, came whiffing through the tulgey wood, and burbled as it came!
